

Obituary 43

Charles Henry Faigle

Charles Henry Faigle, for over forty years an active and highly respected citizen of Hancock, died suddenly on Sunday, June 20th, from a heart attack.

Mr. Faigle was 72 years of age and had been extremely active this spring in many ways. Born and raised on a farm at Hiawatha, he knew and did well every branch of farming activity. Mr. Faigle had been working early and late, assisting many outside his regular duties. The general opinion is that he over-exerted. For several years he had been making his home with Mrs. Nellie Sands on Leonard Hill.

A son of Henry and Margaret Faigle, early settlers of the industrious German stock, he was born at Hiawatha, Pa., April 25, 1871. In 1895 he married Mary Lang of Hancock and after a few years they settled in Hancock. Mrs. Faigle passed away in 1926. In his latter years Mr. Faigle has been caretaker for Mr. and Mrs. George Crandall, who hold considerable property at Somerset Lake.

Surviving are one son, Dr. Eric Faigle of Syracuse; three sisters, Mrs. Minnie Conrad, Sherman; Mrs. Margaret Dix, Hancock; Mrs. Mary Surine, Adair, Oklahoma; brothers, William and Fred Faigle of Hancock.

Funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church, of which he was a member, at 2:30 p. m. on Tuesday, the Rev. S. V. Curnock officiating. The church was almost filled with relatives and friends. Interment in Riverview cemetery. The bearers were: Harold Reyan, Wm. Cooper, Edward LeRoy, Frank Curtis, Henry P.
