Pukala, Rzucidlo, Vilensky
Lhach@aol.com
I believe it would be Alleghany County. That is where my family went to in 1901 and 1903. Again I am trying to locate a death record for Stanley Rzucidlo, a marriage record for Mary Pukala-Rzucidlo to a John Vilensky. A birth record of a Katy Rzucidlo or Vilensky not sure of the father if it was the first or second husband. A birth record for Sleptha and Martin also not sure if the father being Rzucidlo or Vilensky. Also is their a way to find a marriage record on my Aunt Katy my grandfather lost touch and has since passed away I would like to find out if she had children or if she may still be living. Do they list marriage records by a woman's maiden name or how do I find out. I have 295 names on my grandmothers side of the tree and am trying everything to at least fill in 1 or 2 generations on my grandpas side. For some reason my grandfather talked very little about his family and I'm trying to check from what little information I was able to obtain. I have ship records when his father Stanley came over and also the ship record when him and his mother joined his father. I have a year that Katy, Sleptha, and Martin were born but my grandfather was murdered sometime after 1903 when my grandfather joined him here. If I could find birth records for the 3 children born here I might be able to determine the time of the murder depending who the father was. If you know of any place or anyone I could contact to obtain such records please let me know. Desperate to find family.

TOMJACK and WHITE FAWN.
January 27, 1997 - ssliwins@exix.net - Steve Sliwinski -
I am an artist who is donating my talents to our local county library. I am researching two native americans, one of which is the subject of a portrait painting I am working on.

Tomjack was described as a Mingo-Christian (moravian) resident of Burlington, Bradford Co., Pa. from 1790-94. He was born in Logan's Gap, near Juniata (date unknown), moved to Forty Fort in the Wyoming Valley when encroached upon by white settlers, and then on to Burlington. He is credited with keeping the white settlers alive in Burlington through the first winter and being friendly thereafter. His wife's name was Betty Montour, his daughter being White Fawn.

In 1794, TJ and WF relocated to the Allegheny River. WF was known as a Moravian missionary to her people. She never married, considering herself a mother to her people. She died in 1823. In 1838, the Moravian Missionary Society erected a monument in her honor (where-abouts unknown) TJ died in 1809.

I am looking for any documentation, references, known burial sites etc on these two individuals, and would greatly appreciate any new information anyone can offer. Thank you - Steve

WEHRUNG,Krauther
an563@detroitfreenet.org Brendan Wehrung, 702 Irving Ave., Royal Oak, MI 48067
We are looking for the origins of HENRY (HENRI/HEINRICH) WEHRUNG, who was naturalized in Allegheny Co. in 1849. He remained only until about 1852, when he took his family to Meigs Co., OH. He was born in 1810 in the Alsace region of France and family lore suggests that he spent some time as a training officer in the German or French army. He probably arrived in the U.S. in 1847. Before or during his stay in Allegheny Co. he married Katherine Krauther and they had a daughter, Julia, born about 1851. We have no idea of the village of his birth and are hoping that the church or civil record of his marriage or the birth of his daughter might mention the place name.
Alternatively, since German-speaking people tended to cluster in groups, the origins of Alsatians who stayed in Allegheny Co. might suggest where we should look for him.
Thank you in advance for your help or suggestions.

COOK

Helen Austin 24 Jan, 1997 AustinART@aol.com from Helen Austin
Searching for ancestry of Charles Alexander COOK b 19 Jan 1864 probably in Tarentum/Natrona area of Allegheny Co, PA. He married 27 Jun 1888 at Tarentum Methodist-Episcopal Church to Mary Ellen Trenary (1869-1953) of Tarentum. He died 6 May 1952 in Homewood, Pittsburgh, and was buried in Prospect Cemetery in Tarentum/Brackenridge, Allegheny County in a family plot. I need the parents of Charles, a German immigrant, perhaps George COOK, perhaps born in Bavaria in 1832 who was in Allegheny County before 1860. I cannot identify the correct Cook families on the census of 1850, 1860, 1870, 1880 in Natrona and Tarentum. Would like some help in sorting the COOKs of Allegheny Valley for this time period. My clue for the name George COOK is the death certificate of Charles on which his daughter Cornelia put George Cook as father, mother unknown. It is thought that the mother died when Charles was a young child. Related TARENTUM families are YOHE, MC ELWAIN, DIBERT DAWKINS, GERSTNER, TRENARY, DRURY, SCHMITT, VOGELEY, EVANS, STEWART.

DRURY

Helen Austin 24 Jan, 1997 AustinART@aol.com from Helen Austin
Looking for information about the DRURY families who lived in Tarentum, Allegheny Co, PA from 1840 until present. My Stephen Alexander Drury b 1817 PA, d 10 Dec 1898 Tarentum, bur Prospect Cem, Tarentum, PA. He married about 1839 to Mary Ellen Poorman of Westmoreland County, in Blairsville, PA. I need a marriage license for them, and can't find it in Westmoreland County records. He was a blacksmith and may have apprenticed to Mary Ellen's father, Jacob Poorman a blacksmith of Youngstown boro, Unity Township, Westmoreland County, PA. I believe Stephen is the eldest son of James D. Drury, b 1796 Derry Twp, Westmoreland Co, PA; who was living in Tarentum, East Deer Township in 1840 until his death in 1870. He may have lived in Freeport for a time. He was a laborer in the mines of the Allegheny Valley. James and his wife Sarah Elizabeth (b 1796 PA). Other children were William H. (1822-1896), Walter B. (1828-?), David W. (1829-?), Margaret (1833-?), Ann M. (1840). I have records for the DRURY family from 1840-1920, but would like to hear from all descendants and want to trace back to the parents of James. His father may be the Stephen DURY b 1770 who was living in Westmoreland County in 1800.

ADAMOWICZ

Frances E. Tereszuk
I am formally a resident of Allegheny County and I am trying to do research on my mothers family. Her parents were Anthony & Olympia Adamowicz. They died in approximately 1918 or 1919. My mother and her sister were placed in the Holy Family Orphanage in Emsworth, Pa. They did not know where their parents were buried. According to my mother’s baptismal certificate, she was baptized on 3/09/09 at St. Gregory’s Church in Zelienople, Pa. and her Godparents were Alexander Byrannovic & Stephanie Adamowicz.

I am trying to locate any descendants of Joseph & Stephanie Adamowicz. According to the 1910 census they had two sons and lived on McGinn Street in Zelienople. They sold their home to Ida M. Meyer on June 18th., 1910. I believe that Joseph was my grandfather's brother.

My sisters and I would like to know a little about our family heritage. If you have information that would assist me in my research, you can write me at:

Searching for information on the family of George Washington Grubbs. George was born in 1845 in or near Indiana Co., PA to Jacob and Jane Graham Grubbs (daughter of William and Prudence Green-Getty Graham of Armstrong Co., PA.). Jane later married Robert M. George married Catherine Knepshield of Armstrong Co., PA. in 1866. and raised several children: William, Laura Jane, John, George, Samuel, Joseph, Catherine, Frances Eliz. (my G Grandmother) and Henry. The family seemed to bounce between the Apollo area (Armstrong Co.), Turtle Creek (Allegheny Co) and Calhoun Co., WV. throughout their lives. George and Catherine spent their final years in Allegheny Co. and most of their children remained here as well. It is unknown what became of Jacob but Jane remarried when George was in his early teens (Prob. around 1855-1860). Also do not know if the marriage to Robt. Brown produced any other children but indications are that it did. Any and all information is most welcomed! I have had very little luck in locating anything on this family. Your help is appreciated!! Sue Brunot, (Westmoreland Co., PA)

Nancy Carter nmccarter@azaccess.com Mon Feb 17 19:54:02 1997 I'm in need of help locating information on my grgr grandmother, Elizabeth MCDONALD born 31 Dec 1804 in Allegheny Co, PA. She married either James or William FRY. The family was said to have resided in Sewickley and I have seen reference to Pine and Ohio TWPs. I believe her in-laws are buried in the Blackburn United Methodist Cemetery, ie Jacob FRY(E) and Mary MOORE, died 1849 and 1822 respectively. My great grandfather was Bayles FRY, born 18 Feb 1831, Ohio Twp, Allegheny, PA, The family was in the riverboat business and moved to St. Louis, MO in 1846. PHILLIPS AND PACKER
Marilyn Light Lighse@enol.com Tue Feb 18 12:15:03 1997 Any info needed on JAMES/JOHN PHILLIPS b abt 1840 in PA? who married a LUCINDA PACKER b 1844 PA. They married abt 1860, had only 1 son, JAMES PHILLIPS b 3 Mar 1864 in McKeesport. Have heard that she may have been a widow due to the war and was disowned by her wealthy family when she moved to Fulton Co IL to marry an ABRHAM BATH in APRIL 1867 there. Have already researched the ASA PACKER family of PA but no luck. Maybe her name was PACKARD since family thinks she was related to the builders of the PACKARD CAR. James grew up in Fulton Co IL & m ANNA MILLER WILLIAMS there. On his marriage record he states his father’s name as JOHN PHILLIPS on 10 Sept 1885.

MUSHRUSH

I am looking for evidence of the MUSHRUSH family in Allegheny Co. I descend from Michael MUSHRUSH, born 1779, who according to the 1885 History Of Crawford Co. came to Crawford Co. from Cold Hill near Pittsburgh. Does anyone know where the Cold Hill area was? Also, the 1790 Allegheny Co. census lists a Michael MUSHTRUSH, which may have been his father, and does not list a township location but says in the area obtained from Washington Co. Is this where Cold Hill was located? Any help on these or other MUSHRUSHES greatly appreciated.

King

Allen William King's (it may be William Allen) father and mothers names. A.W. King was born in Pittsburgh, PA 1849 and died 12-4-1898. Rumor has it in the family that his father owned a hotel in Pittsburgh. I would appreciated any information you can come up with. We have been trying for 2 generations to found out his name.

O'Connor, King.

I have only very slim leads on my great grandmother, Nancy O'Connor. She was born in Youngstown, Trumbull Co., Ohio, 22 Mar. 1838. her father was Martin (Patrick) O'Connor, her mother, Emma King. Family tradition, found to be quite reliable, says: “Nancy's father was Patrick O'Connor. He lived in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and ran a steam boat on the Ohio River, hauling potash to St. Louis, Mo. Since Nancy did not get along well with her stepmother she often accompanied her father on these trips. It was on one of these trips that she met Benjamin Hawkins in St. Louis." They met in the late 1850's and married shortly before the war broke out. Another quote, "...went to Pittsburgh [ca 1932] to visit [Nancy's niece], Lil, who was married to Chas. Law. They had a very nice large brick house". This is all the information I have and was in hopes that someone might give me a lead or two. Possibly someway to track down the riverboat connection or maybe an 1850 or 1860 census record of Pittsburgh's county. I don't have ready access to them here in Tennessee. Many thanks, Box Hawkins

DUNN
I am interested in learning more about my G Grandfather Joseph Dunn and his wife Mary Ann. They came over from England after they were married which date I do not know. I know where he is buried but they have no in depth information on him. I can not seem to locate the where abouts of his wives burial. KLUG/SPEER - Jill Holmes Sun Mar 2 08:07:27 1997 Trying to find my grandmother's birth parents. My grandmother, Eva May KLUG HOLMES, was adopted by Frank KLUG and his wife Annie Eliza SPEER KLUG. Eva's birthdate was listed on her birth certificate as February 20, 1922. It said that her birthplace is Pittsburgh, PA. She hasn't seen a copy of it for many years and Vital Statistics cannot locate one. In 1920, Frank and Annie lived at 1444 Nixon Street in the 21st Ward of Pgh with Annie's sister Lillie SPEER GRAHAM and her family. I'm not certain if that is where they lived in 1922 when Eva was adopted. Eva didn't find out she was adopted until she was in her 30's when a cousin let it slip. Her mother had already passed away. Her father was still alive, but she didn't ask him about it because she surmised that if he had wanted her to know, he would have told her. He passed away in the 1960’s.

LOWE, MADDOX, DOUGLASS, STEPHENSON, NEFF, ELKIN
Jill Holmes Fri Feb 28 20:56:06 1997
- Searching for more information on the Barnabas LOWE family. He may be a brother to Cornelius LOWE. Born in England, he and wife Millicent MADDOX came to U.S. c. 1851-1852. They had 8 daughters: Mary (b. in England in 1842), Sarah Elizabeth (b. in England in 1845; died in Pittsburgh in 1910), Emily (b. in England abt. 1848), Anna “Annie” Eliza (b. in England abt. 1850), Catherine (b. in PA abt. 1852), Henrietta (b. in PA abt 1857), Eliza Jane (b. in PA abt. Jan. 1860), and Serena (b. in PA abt. 1863). Barnabas was a shoemaker. The family seems to have lived in West Mahoning Township for at least 10 years. Sarah married Edward Eaton DOUGLASS c. 1867 who was originally from Butler County. They mainly lived in Indiana and Smicksburg although 2 of their children were born in Blair County. Around 1888 they moved to Pittsburgh. They had 7 children. Barnabas's will indicates that Emily married someone with the last name STEPHENSON and that Annie married someone with the last name NEFF (John?). From another source, I believe that Henrietta married a David ELKIN. According to his will entry, Barnabas died in 1884; not certain where he is buried. Curiously enough, I couldn't find the family in the 1880 Census.

Hello, My father and grandfather grew up in Swissvale in Allegheny Co. I would like to trace my roots as far back as your records will allow me too. Can u give me some direction to go in. Thank you, C. Weschitz

I am looking for info on my great grandfather Andrew Harold. He came from Salamanca, NY and lived in Pittsburgh in the 1900's to maybe the 1930's.

I'm searching for information on the following surnames from South Fayette, Allegheny County from 1840 to 1900. WALLACE, GILMORE, ROWLEY, CUBBAGE and WINTERS. Thanks

I am trying to locate a compiled genealogy entitled "George Bortner of Codorus Township, York County, Pennsylvania and His Descendants", prepared by Charles H. Glatfelter and published in 1949. Has anyone out there ever come across this? Please email me. I have a copy of the work, The Bordner and Burtner Families and Their Bortner Ancestors in America, by Howard W. Bordner, published in 1967. I'd be happy to share info with anyone making inquiries about this family. I am posting this query to York, Adams, Berks, and Allegheny counties, because Bortner descendants were known to have lived in these places.

The couple had three children I think, two boys and one girl. The girl's name was Alice. In the middle of 1930's they lived in the village Warrendale, just northwest of Pittsburgh. Please, can anybody help me with facts on this matter.

I just phoned the Washington Co. Court House, Register of Wills to inquire the cost to obtain copy of WILL. I'd previously wrote to Diane Myers (a LOOKUP Volunteer) and she was very kind and helpful to this newbie! She provided address and phone nmb for courthouse and cost of LDS film...all in a matter of 1 hr. The cost of a "research" (even if you know the book etc) is $10 per will. LDS is only $3 per film. Just thought you all might enjoy this information and know how grateful I am to Diane and all the other volunteers.

ANDREE / ANDRE; ZIMMERMAN
Paul Andree
I've been searching for my grandfather's roots; Rev Paul Howard ANDREE, 1879. He was orphaned before the age of 8; so we have had no info. till Wed. this week. I found a Paul Andree living in Mifflin Twp with a wife and 2 children in the 1860 census. Then in the 1870 census, I find the same family with 7 children; one of which was named Paul; but the name now spelled with 1 "e"; ANDRE. They were then living in Elizabeth Twp. This son Paul may be the father of my grandfather Paul. The family disappears from there; but I have only started looking. I at least have something new to work on, but would appreciate any info and help finding this family. The father, Paul; in the 1860 census was listed as a coal miner. Did the coal mines keep employee records; and are they readily available? My grandfather married Sara ZIMMERMAN, 1882 of the Noah Zimmerman family of Westmoreland Co. We have info on the Z. family back to 1813, from Union Co PA. David Z. married 5-11-1815 Mary Kelly, 1796 in Hartleton, Union Co. Ten children were born in S. Huntingdon Twp, Westmoreland Co, near Mendon and Reagantown. Any info on the family members will be helpful to us; and we may be able to assist you.

CRAWFORD Glenna L. Colwell
I am seeking information on James Crawford who was married to Frances Wilkins. James and Frances had one son, Thomas Thompson Crawford born 1834 probably in Redbank Twp., Armstrong Co., which later became Clarion Co. I feel James may have been a part of the Crawford Family that came to Armstrong Co., but am unable to prove relationship. I have no birth or death date for James but his wife Frances was born in 1808 so he may have been born close to that time. He undoubtedly died before 1840 as Frances married Joshua Rea, Jr in December 1840. I also understand the name Thompson, of which their son's middle name was, was a family name from the Crawford Family that settled in Armstrong Co. I feel James may have somehow been related to John Crawford the Civil War doctor that has a Civil War Descendants Camp named for him. James may have been his uncle. If anyone can provide me with information on James Crawford it would be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

SMITH Irene Crawford
Looking for information on Charles A. SMITH, b. abt. 1855 in Sweden under the name of CHRISTIANSSON or CHRISTENSEN. He immigrated to the states in 1869. On Feb. 21, 1875, he married Agnes Jane DIXON, and at that time was listed as residing in McKeesport. In Oct. 1876, he filed a Declaration of Intention to naturalize in Clay Co., IN, but there is no further information on his naturalization. He was back in PA no later than 1881, when his daughter, Mary Ann was born, either in McKeesport or Dubois. Other children include Henry and Sarah, and probably more. The only other thing I know about this man is that he was a coal miner, and was killed in a mining accident which also permanently disfigured his son Henry, leaving him with a large lump on his forehead.

STREYLE ed streyle
STREYLE, John Located John Streyle in Butler county in the 1860 census in Harmony Borough. At that time his father is listed as Frederic and his mother is Margaret. He has an older brother Frederic and a two younger brothers Ludwig and William. John was born in 1846. In the 1870 and forward census records of Allegheny county they have a John Streyle living in Allegheny County with the same year of birth. His place of birth is listed as New York. In 1880 the Allegheny County census has William Streyle living with John. William is listed as a border but has the same year of birth as William listed in Butler County, Harmony Borough in 1860. In 1860 census of Butler County Har,mony Borough John Streyle is listed as being born in Pennsylvania. The question I'm trying to resolve is whether the John Streyle listed in the Pittsburgh census in 1870 AND 1880 is the same John Streyle listed in the Butler County Harmony Borough census of 1860. I'm also interested in any information that can be obtained about the STREYLE, also spelled STRAYLE, SRALEY, STRIYLE.

KAHL Judy Suressi
KAHL Rudolph and Mary Kahl are my mothers paternal grandparents. According to an 1870 census of Allegheny Cty., Rudolph was from Prussia and Mary was from Bavaria. They both were born ca 1838. Listed on the census was children in given order all born in PA.: William b1862, Amelia b1863, Adam b1864, Julias b1866 & Charles b 6 Nov. 1869. Rudolph was an Optician. There is about a 20 year gap from this census of 1870 until 1890 where I found info that the family must of moved to Cleveland OH. According to my mother (who knows very little of her family roots), that there was a great fire where they lived at the foot of the Allegheny Mts. Her father being Charles A. Kahl was put in an orphanage sometime in his life in possibly Marysville OH. My mother's birthday is in Nov. and I want to present her with a book of info on her family roots. Was there some great fire in Allegheny City around this era? Does anyone have any info or direction that I could search. I am lost as to what happened to all the other children? Was there a newspaper for Allegheny dating from 1870 - 1890? I'm also interested in obtaining birth certificates, naturalization, death and any other info. Please Help! Thank you in advance.

Vogt, 102 Ohio Street, Allegheny, PA. I would also like to know if there was a certain mr. Vogt in Allegheny around that time in the 19th century. TOWNSEND Tammy Townsend TOWNSEND, (?Anthony?), born in late 1950's likely in the area of Pittsburgh. I have substantial reason to believe I have an older brother, likely named Anthony, who is either dead or institutionalized. There may not be a death record, he may have simply "vanished." During a nervous breakdown, my father talked of burying him in the back yard of our home. Several years earlier, my mother "saw" visions of him on her deathbed. I have found a note from a priest in Louisianna congratulating my parents on my birth. It is dated a few months after I was born. It refers to "hope brother and baby are doing well". Except for mentions thirty some years later, I thought I was the first born! I am not trying to stir anything up: just understand a few things. I have a vague recollection of talking about him but in my mind I have him as my mother's brother, not mine. This memory involves him being dropped from a window. I am in Phoenix, Arizona and do not know how to access birth records in Pittsburgh. By the time I was nine or so, my parents severed contact with their families so I do not have access to their memories. You can call me TOLL FREE at 1-888-FANGMASTER (it is a work number). Thank you.

ALBACKER/ALLBACKER/ALBEACHER—Phyllis Albacker Roseberry
Heinrick(Henry) came to Pittsburgh in the 1840's, and settled in Lawrenceville area. He had a son Frederick, a son Augustine, and a son Leopold (my grandfather). He changed the spelling of the name because he did not like the way it was pronounced here in America. We spell it ALBACKER, but I believe it was spelled ALBACHER. I would like to find out who Heinrick's wife was, and when he actually left Germany for America. After arriving in Pittsburgh, Heinrick ran a Bar in the Lawrenceville area. He died in 1907. His son, Leopold, my grandfather, married Laura Belle McCamish, and lived in Lawrenceville, Etna, and finally Aspinwall. Leopold was born in 1861 and died in 1941. Laura Belle was born in 1868 and died in 1918. I would appreciate any and all information relating to this family. Thank you.

The house and property would remain in the GILSON family for five generations, until 1907 when it was sold to the Atlantic Crushed Coke Company by Calvin W. GILSON. A Mr. Harvey MAYHOOD "did a lot of research on the GILSON surname". His papers are in the University of Pittsburgh Library. I am interested in locating these papers. Do they really exist and how large a file is it? Any help would be greatly appreciated.

BEALL Paul Andree
The JAMES P BEALL Family, Circa 1820 of Cadiz, Harrison County, to Kewanna, Ohio We are searching for any information on James BEALL and his children. My Great Grandfather, Zephaniah BEALL, was the son of James Beall. It is strongly possible that James P Beall came from Beallsville, Allegheny Co. Zephaniah was the youngest of twelve children; all of whom preceded Zephaniah in death. Zephaniah was born on 2-19-1847 near Cadiz, Harrison County, Ohio. James P Beall moved his family near Bucyrus, Crawford County, Ohio when Zephaniah was six years old. At the age of sixteen, Zephaniah joined Company E, 34th O.V.I.; in which he spent over two years in the Civil War. Most of his soldiering was done under General Sheridan in the Shenandoah Valley. On June 27, 1872 he married Jennie A Foster of Bucyrus, Ohio. They came to Fulton County, Indiana soon after their marriage and moved onto Zephaniah's farm, five miles east of Kewanna. They lived there until 1903; while the farm remained in the family, where my Grandfather and Mother were born. James P Beall, ? McQUISTON Dina Stevenson das@conknet.com
I'm seeking info. regarding my gggrandfather, Thomas McQuiston, b. July 1832 in Allegheny Co., PA. Either he or his father (also a Thos. according to family legend) married a Mary Elizabeth Funk. The family bible lists the wife of gggrandfather Thos simply as Elizabeth. Thomas supposedly worked as a roller in a steel mill. According to the story we've been told, however, he lived up the Ohio River almost to Beaver Co. Were there steel mills up there too? Thos. McQuiston moved with his family to Ashley Co. AR in 1877 or so. Where was Thos. McQ. born? Where did he live? And his parents. . . who and where? Thanks for your help -

Sutton  Deborah (Debbie) Yarrow  of Clemson, South Carolina
dyarow@clemson.campus.mci.net
I am searching for the ancestral line of George Sutton and Esther (Dunleath) Sutton of Pittsburgh, who was instrumental in founding the Bank of Pittsburgh in 1810. He emigrated to the U.S. from England prior to 1810, and I would like to know where he came from in England and what year he came to America. Also I am particularly interested to know of a related family, the Richard Bishops of Pittsburgh. George and Esther Sutton had a son named Alfred Sutton who married Ann Bishop. I am most interested in the lineage of Ann Bishop, whose ancestor we know through family lore only was named Richard Bishop. Could you please help me find the parents of Ann Bishop and a link I could use to learn more about these Bishops of Pittsburgh? What little I know already from books comes come a book entitled the Encyclopedia of Biography, pp. 1457-1359, which I found in a Pittsburgh library years ago but did not keep an author's name. I am very appreciative of any help you may be able to offer. I was told by a genealogist at this Pittsburgh library that these were old, established Pittsburgh families easy to trace ... if only you lived up there and could remain in the libraries longer than I am able! -Debbie Yarrow
