

In Memoriam,

Arcelia Sawyer, daughter of James H. and Sarah Ann English was born at Burlington, Bradford Co., Pa. June 18, 1851, and died at Penfield, Pa., Sept. 17, 1895. She was the fourth child. Charity, wife of Hiram Thurston, who died in 1887 in Bradford Co., aged 43, Low, born in 1846, now living at Weedville, Delphene, born in 1840, wife of Levi Bateman of Penfield being older, and Mary T. born in 1853 wife of O. A. Allen of Penfield, James H. born in 1857, of Kersey Pa. Edgar E. born in 1860 and died the same year, Maurice J. born in 1863 now living in McKean Co. Pa., Clarence L. born in 1865 and dying in infancy being younger than Mrs. Sawyer.

In 1863, Mr. English and family moved to Dents Run, Elk Co., and soon afterwards to Spring Run and afterwards to Kersey and to Toby where they lived until in 1891 when they moved to Penfield where the aged parents now live the father 76 years and the mother 73 years of age.

Arcelia was married Aug. 18, 1873 to Lyman T. Sawyer who came from Maine. The ceremony was performed at Kersey by Rev. Franklin E. Hewitt. They began housekeeping at the Blanchard homestead in Union township, and afterwards lived at various places, coming to Penfield in 1891.

Five children were born Maun, aged 21, Annie, aged 17, Sadie, aged 15, Edward Nelson, aged 13, Maurice aged 10.

Mrs. Sawyer never had robust health, but in spite of this was ever a hard working woman, with a pleasant and helpful disposition, and was ever willing to care for her family and rear them to become useful men and women.

At a protracted meeting at Brockport, Pa., held by Rev. P. D. Runyon in 1888, Mrs. Sawyer was converted and joined the M. E. church, remaining a consistent member until her death.

A Hint For Our Butter Dealers.

Clearfield consumers always pay about twice as much for their country produce as is paid by people of adjoining counties. We recall last winter of riding with a Clearfield man who had been visiting in Centre county, and who had with him about twenty dozen of eggs, which he had purchased for 15 cents a dozen. In Clearfield they were selling at 30 cents. From an Indiana, Pa. paper we clip the following market report for last week.

Butter 16; eggs 10; potatoes 25; apples 35; onions 60; honey, 14, wheat 65; rye, 40; oats 25 and corn 56.

We do not believe there are any Clearfield people buying butter now for less than 25 cents, and eggs are sold readily at 20 cents. Potatoes are sold in lots of 100 bushels at 50 cents and apples were sold from wagons last week at seventy-five cents a bushel. Indiana is called a slow town without thieves, Nobody would want to steal anything so cheap as their country produce,—Raftsman Journal.

Two Things That Won't Mix.

It is often said that Christians are not more honest than other people. Whatever of truth there is in that requires the substitution of the phrase, church members for "Christians." There is not a dishonest Christian in the world, and never was one. A dishonest man is not a Christian. He may bow his head, cross himself, or weep at the feet of Jesus, soar on wings of ecstasy when he hears descriptions of heaven, and recount with unction the date, the hour, the minute of his conversion; but if he is dishonest he is not a Christian. The fundamental maxim of Christianity is: "Provide things honest in the sight of all men." It is an awful day for any man when he says within himself: "I know that this is dishonest but it is the custom of the trade and I must do it or sink." He is at least the half brother of a man who commits a 28 Sep. 1895.

WE HA

Just
Fall
The
is the son.

WE AL

All o
great Stiff

IT IS A

Littl
wint
man
mon
well
then
line
woo
Flee
pic
ther
can'
mor
you

WE M

For
dray
the fore

WE H

Ver
Mer
and
the fore

DID Y

Thi
goin
A p
this ie

28 Sep 1895.

At a protracted meeting at Brockport, Pa., held by Rev. P. D. Runyon in 1888, Mrs. Sawyer was converted and joined the M. E. church, remaining a consistent member until her death.

Mrs. Sawyer took her bed with illness three weeks before her death. Dr. W. A. Sweier was called and pronounced the illness typhoid fever, Dr. Spackman agreed with this but thought that catarrh was the worst ailment. Drs. Kline and Smith were inclined to think that cancer of the stomach was the disease. She showed improvement during the illness but again grew worse and ceased to live on Tuesday at 11 minutes to five o'clock.

In conversation with her daughter Maud and with her pastor, before her departure, she said that she had no fear of death, having a full hope of anchoring in the Heavenly haven.

The funeral was at the Methodist church in Penfield on Thursday afternoon Rev. S. Ham preached from the text, "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord."

The interment was in Penfield Cemetery, where in bright hope of the resurrection the wife and mother is at rest.

Farewell, dear one, but not for aye.
This night of Time shall end,
And yonder in the Heavenly Day,
Our greetings glad shall blend.

A. H. R.

Nellie Bird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael B. Clever, died on Sept. 9, 1895, aged ten months and one day. This little one had been ailing from birth and death was a blessed relief from suffering.

The funeral was at the home at Penfield. Rev. S. Ham preaching the sermon. The burial was in Penfield Cemetery.

We lay within the silent grave,
The treasure that we faint would save,
But the flowers that droop and die in time
Will bloom in yonder fairer clime.

Subscribe for the PRESS.

It is an awful day for any man when he says within himself: "I know that this is dishonest but it is the custom of the trade and I must do it or sink." He is at least the half brother of a man who commits a forgery, robs tills, or makes false entries. —Christian Advocate.

Expression of Gratitude.

We desire through the PRESS, to thank the kind friends and neighbors who befriended us, during the illness and death of our wife and mother.

LYMAN SAWYER and Children.

—Old papers for sale at this office. Call early. First come, first served.

—A first class violin for sale or for exchange for almost anything of value. Inquire at the PRESS office.

—Ladies—You can all wear a Madam Griswold Corset now. Only 50cts if ordered of Mrs. Armstrong.

—WANTED, every smoker to send seven two-cent stamps to help pay postage, packing, &c., and we will mail sample box of our NON-NICOTINE MIDGET CIGARS. Only one box to one address. Address, LANDIS & Co., Shippensburg, Pa.

House and Land for Sale.

A house and one acre of land, having thereon a bearing orchard for sale. A great bargain at $100. Inquire of the Press, Penfield, Pa.

Important Notice.

The Pittsburg Times, the leading newspaper of Western Pa, will give 25 cents of each dollar received for not less than four months' subscription to any church the subscriber shall designate. Mr. William Roberts of Penfield, Pa, will take charge of and forward all subscriptions for those who may wish to help the Penfield Methodist church or Parsonage in that way, and will keep strict account of the same.

This
going
A pi
this
ig ch
year
whic
wea
of a
the

REMEMBER

If a
for
the

WE D

But
won doli

L

The C

CAN I prompt an MUNN &
experience
tions strict
formation
tain them
ical and so Patents
special not
thus are b
out cost
issued we largest cir
world. $2
Building
copies, 25
tital plate
houses, w
latest des MUNN