Jeremiah G. Lenig, son of William Henry Harrison and Levina Lenig was born in Northumberland Co, Pa., on Feb. 26, 1868, and died at Penfield, Pa., on Jan. 16, 1896. He was the sixth of thirteen children, eight of whom are still living namely, Rev. Dr. Frank Lenig of St Louis, Mo., Eliza, wife of Jesse E. Beach of DuBois, Pa., Robert, Abner and Charles of Wineburne, Pa., and Henry, Sophronia and Lillian who are at the home at Penfield Pa. The deceased ones beside Jerry, are Mary Ann, Jonathan and Cyrus, twins, and an infant boy.

In 1873, Jerry's parents moved to Penfield, where the boy grew to manhood and spent most of his life. He attended the public schools and worked for his father, and others at brick making while a youth. Afterwards he clerked in the store, of Johnson & Overturf, and engaged in the mercantile business himself in the building on Clearfield St., which burned down with the contents in June, 1893.

Jerry's business abilities were of a successful order and he prospered in all that he did. Energetic and economical, he had amassed considerable property for so young a man. He served several terms as Inspector and Judge of Election, being chosen against strong men in the opposite party. In politics he was a Democrat.

By private study, principally, he had acquired a good education and become an intelligent thinker.

When taken ill with typhoid pneumonia he was engaged at Ridgway, Pa. working at brickmaking. He came home to spend Christmas, but took to his bed and 29 days afterwards passed away. Dr. W. A. Sweier attended him faithfully, and Dr's. Pettigrew and Wilson of DuBois, were called in consultation. But the complications of nerve-centres poisoning and hemorrhages could not be overcome by the faithful physicians.

Jerry professed conversion at a Methodist revival several years ago, and it is evident that the hope then born into his life was never lost.

As there has been nothing in your paper from this place for some time I think your old scribe must be dead or visiting, so I concluded to write a few items.

Donald McDonald has been hauling logs although there is not much snow.

Mrs. Shugarts of Luthersburg, visited her daughter, Mrs. Charles Nolder, over Sunday. She is a very pleasant old lady.

The young man did not take the girl home because her brother was there.

Some of our poor declined to go to the County Home and can now get along without the aid of the township.

The different schools around here have gone together and are having a literary society. They certainly enjoy themselves.

We mourn our vanished friends,
But hope lives in our heart.

We'll meet no more to part. A. H. R.

—Many merchants are well aware that their customers are their best friends and take pleasure in supplying them with the best goods obtainable. As an instance we mention Perry & Cameron, prominent druggists of Flushing, Michigan. They say: "We have no hesitation in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to our customers, as it is the best cough medicine we have ever sold, and always gives satisfaction." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by Dr. R. Smith.

It is easy to humbug a man once. When he has been persuaded into buying cheap, inferior whiskey he never does it again if he can help it. Inferior whiskey is disgusting, poisonous and unsatisfactory in every way. Besides it is dangerous to health and comfort. Don't buy whiskey at random. The risk is too great. Get a high-grade liquor that has been tested and proved. The I. W. HARPER Nelson county Ky., whiskey has made a reputation by its excellence. It is invariably good and can always be depended upon

Not a few who read what Mr. Robert Rowls, of Hollands, Va., has to say below will remember their own experience under like circumstances: "last winter I had a grippe which left me in a low state of health. I tried numerous remedies, none of which did me any good, until I was induced to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first bottle so far relieved me that I was enabled to attend to my work, and the second bottle effected a cure." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by R. Smith.

and the object of this offer is to encourage inventors to keep track of their bright ideas. At the same time we wish to impress upon the public the fact that

IT'S THE SIMPLE, TRIVIAL INVENTIONS such as the "car-window" which can be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, "sauceppan," "collar-button," "nut-lock," "bottle-stopper," and a thousand other little things that most any one can find a way of improving; and these simple inventions are the ones that bring largest returns to the author. Try to think of something to invent.

IT IS NOT SO HARD AS IT SEEMS.

Patents taken out through us receive special notice in the "National Recorder," published at Washington, D.

sketch of the winner, and a description of his invention, will be scattered throughout the United States among capitalists and manufacturers, thus bringing to their attention the merits of the invention.
