

9 Oct 1897

Samuel, William...
To glory...
He took...
And he...

- Miller the Merchant.
- Entertainment next...
- Men's... $1.00...
- ... friends in...
- ... will cure Lame Back, Sore Throat, Wounds, Sprain, Bruises, ... Ladies it will cure your...
- Counters full of new goods and at reasonable prices at J & O's.

TO MY CUSTOMERS.

Every pair of shoes bought at my store will be given away FREE OF CHARGE. Call when you want a pair of shoes. You may be the lucky one.
E. L. MILLER, Penfield, Pa.

- Flood lined basket for ladies and children at J & O's.
- Undertaker Joyce has purchased a new white hearse.
- ... wife of ...
- Miller the Merchant.

Is your liver tired? does it fail to do its duty? If so, don't neglect its call for help. A few doses of Herbine may save you a spell of sickness. Herbine is the only perfect liver medicine. It cures chills and fever 75c. at R. Smith's.

- A Scientific glove exhibition was John B. Hewitt was born near Saratoga Springs, New York, on April 14, 1815, and died Oct. 7, 1897, at his home with his son-in-law, F. B. Cooke, near Tyler, Pa., aged 82 years, 5 months and 20 days. He was the son of Ebenezer Hewitt and Sarah Bliss. Sarah Bliss's father, John Bliss, had traded his farm at Saratoga Springs for 1800 acres of the wilderness around the head of Bennett's Branch. At that time from Elk Co. to Lathersburg was one unbroken forest. Into this came Ebenezer Hewitt in 1818. A short distance up the hollow north of the Squire Hewitt homestead, his father started a small clearing and undertook the task of rearing his large family of children.

John was married on Sept. 4, 1838, to Aurilla Brown, whose home was at Montrose, Susquehanna Co., Pa. They began housekeeping in a log cabin standing where the home of Mrs. Georgie Robacker now does. Afterwards he built the house now occupied by his sister, Mrs. Loana Brown on Pleasant Hill, and after this the Squire and his brother Thomas bought 400 acres at Mill Run, and have since lived there.

The children born in the Squire's family were Franklin E. on Aug. 22, 1837; Arvilla, Mrs. John Hevner, July 30, 1840; Chas. A. Dec. 25, 1845; Zelinda, Mrs. F. R. Cooke, March 28, 1849; James O. Aug. 9, 1854, died Aug. 22, 1875. Their mother died Dec. 29, 1870, and afterward the Squire married her twin sister Arvilla, who died not many years afterward.

During his long life, Squire Hewitt was vigorous, active, and useful man. For years he was Justice of the Peace, and also held the offices of Treasurer, School Director and others. He was long a member of the I. O. O. F. and of the Methodist Church. He taught the Bible class in the Mill Run Sunday School up to his fatal stroke. His contributions to the church were ever liberal. Each summer on the farm he took his place as a toiler in the fields.

Thirteen weeks ago, he was smitten

By Usque for the

The E. RO

$!

We pay a

$2.98 with Extra Pant Sallor Colle

A C $14

What you from

Is your liver tired? does it fail to do its duty? If so, don't neglect its call for help. A few doses of Herbine may save you a spell of sickness. Herbine is the only perfect liver medicine. It cures chills and fever. 75c. at R. Smith's.

—A Scientific glove exhibition was given in Kline's Hall on Thursday evening. The principals were Joe Sweeney, of Chicago, Ill., and Hite Peckham of Bradford, Pa. The exhibition was a good one.

—Never judge a man by the clothes he wears. The man with fringes around the bottom of his trousers, delapidated hat and worn out shoes may be the editor of your local paper, while the man with the tan shoes and red necktie may simply be one of his delinquent subscribers.

—Miller the Merchant.

—Ballard's Horehound Syrup is not a mixture of stomach destroying drugs, but is a scientifically prepared remedy that cures coughs and colds, and all throat and lung troubles. Its action is quick, prompt and positive. 25c & 50c at R. Smith's.

Virtue has sure reward and charity is the greatest of all virtues. Little did Dave Gingery think on the many occasions that he has trusted for a sack of flour a poor man who had no money and no credit anywhere but at Gingery's mill or store, that his reward would come so soon. It is said by many persons in a position to know that no poor man was ever known to be turned away empty handed by D. D. Gingery, for lack of money. In view of facts like this, which only serve to give an idea of the generous nature of the man it is not hard to account for the unparalleled popularity he has enjoyed in his present candidacy. —Clearfield Herald.

Ripans Tablets cure dizziness.
Ripans Tablets at druggists.
Ripans Tablets need direction.

Color and others. He was long a member of the I. O. O. F. and of the Methodist Church. He taught the Bible class in the Mill Run Sunday School up to his fatal stroke. His contributions to the church were ever liberal. Each summer on the farm he took his place as a toiler in the fields.

Thirteen weeks ago, he was smitten with a stroke of paralysis, and afterwards was helpless until his death.

The funeral was at the home on Thursday at 2 p. m. Rev. J. Guldin, Methodist pastor and Rev. L. M. Brady a former pastor and W. L. Joyce, Director, were in charge. The burial was at the home cemetery near by.

Thus followed by the generation of the present this aged veteran of the pioneer past was borne to his final place of rest. Not far from where when a helpless babe he had his home, this man who had lived and toiled and sorrowed and suffered for years beyond four score has his narrow home until the last trump shall summon forth the sleeping ones, while his spirit dwells in realms of light.

The Squire is survived by his brothers William, older than he and Thomas, younger, and his sister Loana, widow of Frederick Brown, younger than he.

Like a ripe sheaf in Life's great harvest field

Beneath Time's vast and azure dome,
 Death, the grim Reaper ever gathering
 yield

Thus garners for the final harvest home.

But when a life like grain resplendent
 in its gold

Is filled with blessing and with fruitful deed,

The harvest home shall thrill with joy untold

And prove the good life grander than the creed.

Ripans Tablets pleasant laxative.
Ripans Tablets cure nausea.

9 Oct 1897

$2.9
 with
 Extra Pa
 Saller Cr
 A $14
 What y
 from Gu
 Wool, Blue W
 lined w
 trimme
 Custom
 duplica
 Sizes 3
 Youths Coat an
 How to Me walst o
 to heel
 Wh Express Letters not sat
 samples
 blanks.

V
 is th fresh b
 etc., T canned Fres
 onions.
 of every
 low Op
 P