

Mortuary Record

Philip Faigle

Following a paralytic shock, on Tuesday of last week, Philip Faigle, a well known resident of Hiawatha, Pa., was taken to the Carbondale hospital, where he died at 1 p. m. Saturday, April 11th.

Deceased, who was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Faigle, was born at the homestead in Hiawatha Sept. 28. 1873. Nov. 28, 1901 he was united in marriage with Lela A. Stanton, who passed on some four years ago. Besides his aged mother, he is survived by two sons, Virgil at home and Herbert, also of Hiawatha; also three brothers and three sisters, William of Hiawatha, Charles of Hancock, Fred of Little Falls, Mrs. Margaret Dix of Hancock, Mrs. Mary Surine of Oklahoma, Mrs. Minnie Conrad of Sherman. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and Order of Maccabees.

The funeral service was held at his late home Tuesday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock, Rev. D. S. Haynes of Hancock officiating. Interment in Ball's Eddy cemetery. The casket bearers were Frank Curtis, Frank Karcher, Roy Decker and Carl Sands.