

HARRIS M. KINGSBURY'S FUNERAL TOMORROW

Harris M. Kingsbury, 65, a well known and respected Hancock citizen, died at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Vosburgh, in Poughkeepsie, at 8:30 a. m., on Tuesday, July 17, 1951. Mr. Kingsbury had been in failing health for several years and in May of this year went to Poughkeepsie to live with his daughter. Born on March 31, 1886, in Sunshine, Pa., the son of Edson and Ida (Murray) Kingsbury, he had been a resident of Hancock and vicinity his entire lifetime, receiving his education in Hancock School. On June 28, 1905, in Hancock, he was united in marriage to Miss Eva Thomas, the Rev. Leach, Baptist minister, officiating at the wedding.

Mr. Kingsbury was employed for 42 years as clerk in Wheelock's Drug Store prior to his retirement in 1947. At one time he and a brother, Floyd, operated a coal business in the village. For 10 years he was record keeper for the local Maccabee Tent.

Deceased was a faithful member of the Baptist Church, a member of Hancock Lodge No. 552, F&AM, a member of the Maccabees, a retired fireman and a former member of the Hancock Band.

Surviving besides his wife and daughter are one son, Thomas of Jermyn, Pa.; three grandsons, Rolland Kingsbury, Washington, D. C.; Milton Kingsbury, with the U.S. Air Force, Bioloxi, Miss.; James Kingsbury, Jermyn, Pa.; one granddaughter, Mrs. Harold Mellin, Jermyn, Pa.; three brothers, Roscoe, Howard and Floyd, all of Hancock. Also several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Funeral services for Mr. Kingsbury will be conducted on Friday afternoon, July 19, at 2:00 o'clock at the Tyler Funeral Home, Hancock. Rev. Addison J. Horn, pastor of the Hancock Baptist Church will officiate. Burial in Riverview cemetery, Hancock. Bearers will be Ralph Wheelock, Clayton Morse, Grace Rees, Edwin Morgan, Paul E. Zler and Stephen Caffery.